A PASSENGER TRAIN GOES DOWN THROUGH A BRIDGE.

One Car, Known to Contain Over Twenty, Completely Submerged in the River—A Special Sent to the Scene of the Disaster. Particulars Not Yet Learned.

CHARLES CITY, Iowa, April 6.—A terrible disaster occurred seven miles west of New Hampton this morning. A passenger train on the Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad was precipitated into the Wapsie river by the giving away of the bridge.

The engineers and two passengers are known to be drowned and it is supposed the same fate has befallen the balance of the passengers. A special train has just left this point for the place of disaster with physicians and citizens. It is impossible to get the names of the dead and wounded at the hour of this dispatch.

Another Account.

MASON CITY, Iowa, April 6.—A terrible accident occurred at 2 a. m. on the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, five miles out of New Hampton. But brief particulars can be learned at this time.

The smoking car, two passenger cars, baggage and mail car and engine plunged through a bridge into the Wapsie river. The smoking car, containing over twenty passengers, is completely submerged. The engineer cannot be found, and it is thought that he is drowned.

The Railroad's Side of the Story.

CHICAGO, April 6.—The official dispatch in regard to the accident received by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train dispatcher in Chicago, stated that the engineer of the train and another man and a child were killed. Three passengers were injured. The dispatch gives no names of either killed or injured. The train was No. 1 of the Iowa & Dakota division, which left Chicago at 11:30 yesterday morning. At 5 o'clock this morning it ran into a washout caused by the overflow of a creek at New Hampton, a few miles from Mason City.

QUICK JUSTICE

Administered to a Colorado Wife-Murderer by An Infuriated Mob.

FORT COLLINS, Col., April 6.—J. H. Howe murdered his wife in cold blood at noon, Wednesday, and at 8 o'clock in the night a lynching party numbering several hundred took Howe out of jail and hung him. The town is wild with excitement. Howe came here from Fredonia, N. Y. For the past few years he has been dissolute, not properly supporting his wife and one child. Her friends have frequently counseled her to leave him, but this she refused to do, hoping to redeem him.

Tuesday he gave her a whipping while he was drunk. Wednesday noon he went home and found his wife packing her trunks, and she told him that she was going to her friends. Upon this he seized her and, taking out a pocket-knife, slashed her across the cheek, cutting a gash reaching from the mouth to the ear. He then took her to the floor and pushed her out. Here she fell to the ground, and he then, planting his heels on her breast, deliberately cut her throat, severing the jugular. She managed to get to her feet, and staggered into the street, where she fell dead at the feet of a few spectators, who had been attracted by her screams.

Howe went into the house and waited for the officers. He did not resist. Within an hour a crowd of one hundred people had assembled around the jail, and lynching was freely talked of. The sheriff fought off the mob as best he could, but at 8 o'clock in the evening the jail door was forced, and Howe was taken out and strung up without ceremony.

TWO-CENT RAILROAD FARE.

The Bill Passes the Ohio House by a Vote of 77 to 15.

COLUMBUS, O., April 6.—The house has passed the bill limiting railroad fares to two cents a mile. The bill was under discussion all morning, and an amendment was adopted prohibiting railroads from issuing passes to any one, except employees, under a penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.

As the bill stands, with Woems' amendment, roads whose earnings per mile are $3,500 and over shall not charge more than two cents per mile; roads whose earnings per mile are over $1,500 and less than $3,500 shall charge not more than two and one-half cents, while roads whose earnings are less than $1,500 per mile are allowed to charge three cents per mile.

The commissioner of railroads, attorney general and auditor of state are constituted a commission to issue certificates to railroads of the amount of fare they are entitled to charge, based upon reports in the office of the railroad commissioner. The vote on the bill was 77 to 15.

The bill will now go to the senate and it is not impossible that it will pass there.

A MINNESOTA WIND STORM.

Several Houses Unroofed and Blown Down. A Number of People Injured.

WATERVILLE, Minn., April 6.—A severe wind and rain storm, accompanied by hail, passed this place yesterday, blowing down several buildings and injuring a number of persons. Reports from the country north of here said the storm was much worse than here. August Herring had his house blown down and scattered about the prairie. Several of the family were severely injured. One son will not recover. The wind tore up snow and ice in large chunks, and it could be seen forty feet in the air. Great damage from high water is expected.

At Faribault, Minnesota.

St. PAUL, Minn., April 6.—Meager reports from Faribault, Minn., say a severe wind storm struck that place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, doing much damage to church roofs and steeples, unroofing several business blocks, leveling telegraph poles, etc. The total loss is about $100,000. An unknown German was struck by a flying coal hod, and seriously injured.

JAKE SHARP DYING.

The Noted Broadway Boodler Said to Be Nearing an End.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The life of Jacob Sharp hangs by a thread. He had been gradually sinking for forty-eight hours, and his family had given up all hope.

JAKE SHARP.

He has been unconscious since last Monday night, and when aroused was delirious. At noon his physician, Dr. Loomis, said death was near, and broke the news to Mrs. Sharp's daughters, who in turn guardedly conveyed the intelligence to their mother.

In his delirious moments Mr. Sharp made constant reference to the Broadway railroad, declaring it a "great public benefit," and muttering that the newspapers had not done him justice. Mr. Sharp's fatal illness was brought on by exposure to the blizzard while at Rome, N. Y.

MOLLIE MAGUIRE TACTICS.

Discovery of a Hungarian Plot to Murder Three Informers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 6.—A startling story was told in the mayor's office here last evening. Charles Engle, a reputable citizen of the second ward, swore that at a meeting of Hungarians held Tuesday night, it was resolved by them that three men, two Irish and one German, who reside in the vicinity and who gave evidence against the riotous Hungarians, who were arrested and fined on Monday, should be put to death.

The meeting was secret, but a Hungarian who was present, told on the conspirators. The plan adopted was to go to the houses of the doomed men on a certain night and kill them in bed. The chairman of the meeting selected twenty volunteers for the work. The names of only a few of the conspirators could be ascertained, and for the arrest of these, warrants were speedily issued. One Hungarian, who gave his name as Andrew Ollstman, was taken into custody at an early hour. Officers are after the others and may arrest them before morning. This seems to be a revival of Mollie Maguire tactics.

Murdered Under Cover of Darkness.

BALTIMORE, April 6.—News has reached here that Mr. N. Saunders was stabbed to death Tuesday night near Chaptico, St. Mary's county. Mr. Saunders had been attending the wedding festivities of a daughter of Mr. Knox, a farmer, near Chaptico, and was on his way home in company with several ladies when he was suddenly stabbed. He fell to the ground exclaiming "I'm cut!" and died shortly afterward. The night was dark and the assailant was not seen. Mr. Saunders came from Warsaw, Richmond county, Virginia, last August, and was a son of Dr. Saunders, of that place.

Texas Style.

EL PASO, Tex., April 6.—In John Woods' restaurant and saloon, a fight between Mexicans and negroes took place last evening over an old grudge between Bert Penn, of Austin, and Henry Owens, both colored desperadoes. Owens shot Penn through the bowels. Fannie Oliver, who was in the room, was shot through the body, her left arm laid open with a dirk and her scalp torn down. Little St. Clair, a white woman, was shot in the head. A dozen others received minor cuts and wounds. Penn is dead and the Oliver woman will die. All the participants are in jail.

Big Time at Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 6.—Premier Greenway and Attorney General Martin arrived in this city last night. They were met by 5,000 people at the station and escorted up Main street, which was illuminated by bonfires. They both spoke briefly, stating at least three railways intended entering the province and entering into active competition with the Canadian Pacific railway. They stated that they had written assurances from Sir John Macdonald that there would be no more disallowance of Northwest railway charters.

Arrested on Suspicion.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Last evening Lieut. Shea went to McGuire's saloon, Grand avenue and Thirty-eighth street, and arrested four alleged tough characters, including the bartender, on suspicion that they might possibly be implicated in the murder of Kreigh and the shooting of Brassell Tuesday night on the Alton train. The officer has sent Conductor Beers to take a look at them. Brassell was said to be improving at 2 o'clock this morning.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 6.—The headquarters of the National Service Pension association has been established here, and G. R. Stormant, of Princeton, Ind., appointed secretary, and C. A. Power, of this city, corresponding secretary. An appeal has been prepared and is being sent out to all old soldiers to unite in demanding at the next session of congress the passage of a service pension law. The veterans are urged not to neutralize the effect of the effort by factious opposition to any particular bill, but to unite in all parties in favor of service pensions. The terms of a bill to be sent to congress will be fixed at the next meeting of the National association, to be held at Columbus, O. Contributions are called for to defray expenses. Indiana veterans have held a state convention and appointed a committee to present the measure to the party conventions. Veterans in other states are urged to do likewise, and all state associations are requested to identify themselves with the National.

PINKERTON MEN RELIEVED ## OF GUARDING THE BURLINGTON'S PROPERTY IN CHICAGO.

The Police Will Have Full Charge in the Future—Indications of a Deal Between the Brotherhood and the Knights—A Murderous Switchman Arrested.

CHICAGO, April 6.—This morning a detail of 100 city police taken from the different precincts were marched at Desplaines station and instructed to relieve the Pinkerton guards that have been keeping watch over the Burlington road. From to-day forward the blue coats will have full charge of the Burlington road in this city, and will continue to protect it until the road signifies that it no longer needs protection.

Referring to the reported deal between the Brotherhoods of Engineers and Firemen and General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, by which all knights in the employ of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road were to be called out, the Chicago Times says:

"The proposition is still pending, and a decision may not be reached for some days yet. The engineers, firemen and switchmen desire Mr. Powderly to call out the Knights of Labor who have taken their places on the Burlington, and if it should become necessary, also the train and section hands, as far as they are Knights of Labor. In short they want him to make the strike official with the Knights of Labor. All the men, who struck under this arrangement, are to be supported by the Brotherhoods. In return the engineers, firemen and switchmen will obligate themselves to stand by the Knights of Labor on other roads if it should become necessary. This Mr. Powderly may agree to do, and probably will as far as those men are concerned who took the places of the strikers, if he will exercise any authority over them.

"These propositions rest upon the condition that the engineers, firemen and switchmen are acting in concert. Such a combination is in existence. The switchmen have been promised that if they would strike on the Burlington the engineers and firemen would assist them on other roads when they had any just grievances. This refers especially to the Lake Shore, where the switchmen want to compel the employment of union men in place of those who took the places of the striking switchmen in 1886. But this effort is not to be made until after the trouble with the Burlington is settled. It is not at all improbable that the engineers and firemen will amalgamate permanently."

A Murderous Switchman.

CHICAGO, April 6.—James Derry, a night switchman in the employ of the Northwestern road, is locked up, charged with assault with intent to kill. Yesterday afternoon he assaulted a Pinkerton watchman in the Burlington yards and drawing a revolver threatened to shoot him. The approach of other officers frightened Derry away. Last evening he stood behind a telegraph pole at Twentieth and Brown streets, and fired two shots at the cab of a Burlington switch engine which was passing. The bullets shattered the windows of the cab, but fortunately did not strike the engineer or fireman. The fireman returned a shot at Derry, who then ran away. He was arrested soon after by the city police.

Reckless Shooting.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Two men in a buggy, while crossing the Sangamon street viaduct last night about 8 o'clock, drew revolvers and fired into the yards of the Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, emptying both of the weapons. Whether they were reckless drunkards or vicious strikers is not known. Their fusillade injured nobody. Their firing attracted the attention of policemen nearby, but the men in the buggy drove away too rapidly to be caught.

Santa Fe Brakemen and Switchmen.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 6.—There are indications of trouble brewing among the brakemen and switchmen of the Santa Fe. Several secret meetings have been held to consider the probability of the necessity of a strike at any time. The men are not willing to divulge the facts, but are supposed to be making preparations in anticipation of receiving orders to go out. There are no Burlington cars at this place. The supposed movement indicates a preparation for a general strike on the whole line on account of the trouble at Kansas City and Chicago.

Fort Wayne Train Stoned.

SPENCERVILLE, O., April 6.—Last night No. 8, eastbound express on the Fort Wayne road, was stoned a few miles from this place. Windows were broken, but no one was seriously injured. Several shots were fired, one of the bullets narrowly missing Conductor Gray's head. Several cars contained Reading men en route east from Chicago, and it is supposed the attack was meant for them. The company will offer a large reward for the arrest of the scoundrels.

Mrs. Waite's Diamonds Stolen.

TOLEDO, O., April 6.—It has just transpired that Mrs. Waite, widow of the late chief justice, suffered the loss of valuable diamonds when leaving Toledo for Washington. They were in a portemonnaie which she had in her hand. When she entered a carriage to convey her to the Pennsylvania depot, she laid it down on the seat and forgot it until the depot was reached, when it could not be found. Several of the gems were gifts of her husband, and highly prized aside from their intrinsic value, which is large. They were undoubtedly stolen, but in what way or by whom, it is impossible to conjecture.

Waiter Weds a Wealthy Widow.

WICHITA, Kan., April 6.—An event which excited considerable comment occurred yesterday. The widow of M. Zimmerly, a millionaire who died a few months ago, married Lee Jerome, a restaurant waiter, who came to this city from New York a few months ago.

Governor Buckner vetoed six bills in four minutes a few days ago. That beats all past records in this line.

In the municipal contest at Paris last Wednesday the old council was re-elected without opposition—six Democrats and one Republican.

The news from Washington indicates the appointment of Speaker Carlisle to succeed Chief Justice Waite. If the question was left to Kentuckians Carlisle would be the man.

The Oregon Democrats are the first in the ring with instructions for Cleveland for President. The other States will now swing into line and make the nomination "unanimously unanimous."

Mr. Charles Collins, who has been clerking on the wharfoat for the past year, has accepted a position in the office of the Adams Express Company. Mr. George Pollitt has succeeded him at the wharfoat.

It looks like the tariff reformers and the free traders may run Sam Randall out of Pennsylvania before long. A free trade club composed of 250 men, mostly workingmen, has been organized at Braddock, in that State. The following gentlemen compose this special committee, viz: Messrs. H. C. Barkley, A. J. McDougle, J. C. Pecor, John Wheeler and G. W. Blatterman.

The citizens of Maysville ought to take great pride in making our city appear as favorable as possible on the occasion of this convolve, and we believe they will. By commencing now there will be ample time and opportunity for completing all preparations.

Committee on Station House reported the work done by prisoners on streets &c. for month at about $80. Chairman Wood thought colored street-walkers be compelled to pay their fines by breaking rock in station house yard.

Regarding the railroad crossing at Bridge street, the Committee reported that Mr. Huntington proposed to lower the grade of street so as to allow twelve feet in the clear, he paying all expenses. This was agreed to by the committee as the best settlement of the trouble. The report was adopted.

Committee of Laws &c. recommended several amendments to the present city charter. The matter was continued in hands of committee.

Numerous complaints were made against the Citizens' Gas Light Company for failure and refusal to put up new lamps when ordered by the committee, and for neglecting to keep lamps lighted when required. Complaint was also made against the "moon schedule." The matter was left in hands of committee to enforce the contract with the company. Regarding the schedule, the suggestion was made that some other than the Philadelphia schedule be adopted.

The amendment to reduce the lottery license from $1,000 to $500 was passed by a vote of 8 to 5. Messrs. Poyntz, Rudy, Cox, Shackelford, Wood, Wadsworth, Stockton and Fleming voted yea, and Messrs. Chenoweth, Thomas, Robinson, Shannon and Mathews voted no. Some of the members thought the city was in need of the $500.

The following petitions were granted: James W. Swift; to erect a one-story frame house on Grant street.

Samuel Blank; to erect an addition to his house in the Fifth ward.

James Robinson; to erect a one-story frame building between his cooper shop and double frame cottage, east of bridge, on Second street, Fifth ward.

L. D. Hancock; to erect a two-story frame cottage on his lot on Third street, Fifth ward.

E. G. Rist & Co.; to erect a sign on Second street, near Sutton.

James Cullen; to erect a one-story frame cottage on Second street, First ward.

W. H. Frederick; to erect a frame shop on corner of Commerce street and Strawberry alley.

William Lally; to enlarge a kitchen on Vine street.

Mrs. Greenwood; to erect a frame cottage on Second street, First ward.

A. Bona & Co., to erect an awning at their store on Second street.

Complaint from J. R. Hawley against the City Marshal and his deputies was referred to Committee on Police for investigation. The matter has been fully explained heretofore in the BULLETIN.

The question of erecting a new bridge over Limestone Creek was referred to Committee on Internal Improvements for investigation and report.

Privilege was granted to move "aunt" Kitty Reed from alms house to her daughter-in-law's home and that the usual allowance, $2.25 a week, be made her. The old lady is reported in dying condition.

The Masons and G. A. R. were granted permission to erect arches on the streets during their approaching meetings.

Various other matters of minor importance were brought up and proved the source of lengthy discussions. During these discussions but little or no regard was paid to the rules governing such bodies. The meeting did not adjourn till after eleven o'clock.

A Maysville Man Victimized.

John Cook, formerly an employe at Henry Ort's furniture store, this city, had the "panel racket" worked on him a few evenings since in Cincinnati. He was decoyed to a room by some woman who had a male companion conveniently near to play the part of the injured husband. The scheme was worked successfully, and they scared their victim out of $65.

Cook caught on to their racket afterwards, and complained to the police. The couple were arrested and $12 of the money recovered. The woman had expended part of the cash in supplying herself with a gold-headed umbrella, a silk dress and other articles.

Death of Charles E. Dimmitt.

Mr. Charles E. Dimmitt, a prominent farmer, died this morning at his home near Summit Station, on the Kentucky Central. He had been ill for several weeks with typhoid pneumonia, but was recovering. This morning he was stricken with paralysis, which resulted in his death in a few hours.

The deceased leaves a wife and several children, among them Mrs. Robt. H. Newell and Mr. M. S. Dimmitt, of this city.

"THE DANITES" when given here a year or so ago by Cora Van Tassel and her company delighted the large crowd that was present.

To Joseph F. Brodrick, Agent: After having been insured in the Equitable Life for twenty years I have to-day received their check for near $7,000. This company is possessed of both wealth and honor.

OWENS & BARKLEY call the attention of the farmers to the fact that they have the agency for the sale of the celebrated Ross cutters, both hand and power, also lever cutters, which will be sold for less money than they can be bought anywhere else. They have a large stock of "O & B." and Haven's roller and lever cutters at very low prices. Full stock of hoes, rakes, forks, shovels, picks, mattocks, &c., &c. They invite all interested in such goods to call and see them and get prices. Having sold about three hundred plows, they have a few left at low prices.

EXTRAORDINARY VISIT.

PRINCE ALEXANDER OF BATTENBERG
TO CALL ON FREDERICK III.

He is No Ordinary German Prince, and Will Probably Again Become Ruler of Bulgaria—The Abyssinians Retire—A Big Loan—Other European News Notes.

BERLIN, April 6.—The coming visit of Prince Alexander of Battenberg, to the imperial schloss at Charlottenberg is a matter of vastly more significance than would in the ordinary course of things be attached to the act of a prince of German blood, in personally paying his respects to the ruler of the German empire, or even that of his wooing a daughter of the emperor, if he were of no more consequence than German princes usually are.

PRINCE ALEXANDER.

But Alexander is no ordinary German prince. His administration of the government of Bulgaria, which he assumed at the age of twenty-two years, disclosed his possession of executive abilities of a high order and his conduct of the campaign against Serbia gained for him a greater degree of military glory and reputation for astute generalship than are commonly the feature of men of his age. Prince Alexander is now only thirty-one years of age, and with the record for bravery and diplomacy which accompanied him in his withdrawal from Bulgaria and still attaches to him, it is impossible that his career as a factor in European politics and military affairs is ended.

Apart from his personal claims to the admiration and affection of Princess Victoria of Prussia, who by common consent is credited with entertaining a feeling of tenderness
for the Battenberg prince which rarely enters into the matrimonial alliances of royalty, Prince Alexander has advantages in furthering his suit for the hand of the kaiser's daughter, which can hardly fail to insure his success. Queen Victoria long ago included Prince Alexander among her especial favorites, and it is known that the empress mother of the princess entertains for him a feeling of natural regard scarcely less marked than that which she holds for her own children.

With these powerful adjutants to the all
but confessed love of the princess herself it is as difficult to conceive how the late prince of Bulgaria can be cheated out of his prospective alliance with the most powerful house in Europe, as it is to imagine that he will not in the near future become one of the conspicuous figures of Europe.

Prince Ferdinand, temporarily of Bulgaria, is no more to be compared with Prince Alexander than the late King Ludwig of Bavaria could have been likened to the great Napoleon. When Ferdinand leaves Bulgaria he will undoubtedly pass forever
from public view, but it is safe to predict that Alexander will again become the ruler of a people.

Baron Eugene Von Roeder, for over sixty years in the service of the late emperor, as chamberlain and grand steward of the household and grand master of ceremonies, is dead.

The conference on Saturday last between the emperor and Prince Bismarck was mainly with reference to bills for the relief of the flooded districts. The state railways will convey donations to the sufferers free of charge.

The Princess of Waldeck-Pyrmont has gone to Bentheim to attend her son, who is seriously ill with scarlet fever and kidney disease.

The Abyssinians Retire.

ROME, April 6.—Advices from Massowah
say that before the retreat of the Abyssin-ians was begun King John liberated the Moslem prisoners belonging to tribes around Allet and Gumhod. A large number of women and children of these tribes have arrived in the Italian camp in a pitiable state.
The Abyssinians have retreated for twenty-eight hours without stopping.

Waiting to Shoot a Russian Count.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—A man named Ivanoff was recently arrested in front of Count Tolstoi's residence by the count's special guard. The man was armed with revolvers and was waiting to shoot Count Tolstoi. Other persons have been arrested since.

The Rothschilds' Loan.

BERLIN, April 6.—Baron Bleichroder, with the Rothschilds, has concluded a new concession for the Egyptian government to the amount of £2,250,000, taking the whole issue
at 93 firm, with interest at 4-1/2 per cent.

Foreign Notes.

It is estimated that fifty persons have committed suicide at Monte Carlo during the last three months.

A cordon of Turkish soldiers has been placed on the Roumanian frontier, owing to the outbreak of contagion around Bourgas.

With the single exception of La Justice every newspaper in Paris has joined in the attack upon the ministry, led by La Republique and the Debats.

United Ireland urges the Nationalist leaders to extend its Sunday meetings of the National league if the government interferes with those already appointed for Sunday next.

An order of the Chinese government forbidding foreign steamers to trade at the inland port of Chun-King has created great excitement in Manchester, England, which city has hitherto conducted an extensive trade with that port.

Mr. W. Reed Lewis, the American consul at Tangier, has received a reply from the Moorish government, declining to accede to the demands of the United States with reference to the persons under consular protection imprisoned at Rabat. Fears are entertained that the American government will adopt rigorous measures against Morocco.

MYSTERIES AT CHANDLERSVILLE.

A Young Woman Shot and Her Lover
Found Dead in the Yard—Suicide.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 6.—A mysterious tragedy took place at Chandlersville, some time Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning. A doctor was summoned to James LePage's farm, near the village.
Entering the yard he stumbled over the dead
body of Edward Smith, a young railroad employe. At the house another surprise greeted him. Maggie, LePage's daughter, the belle of the neighborhood, was shot and seriously wounded in the head.

The story of the family was that late at night Maggie heard a noise in the yard, and on opening the blind was shot through the glass by an unknown party, the ball entering her forehead and glancing around the frontal bone. They professed to know nothing of Smith's death. Smith had been courting Miss LePage, but had been discarded by her for another suitor named Bonfield, who, it was learned, was at the LePage house Tuesday evening, but who, the family claimed,
had left before the shooting occurred.

Smith left Chandlersville on horse-back Tuesday evening, and early Wednesday morning his horse was found hitched in front of a store, bearing evidence of having been ridden hard. While the theory of an attempted suicide is indicated, other matters make it by no means certain. Smith was twenty-four years old, and well liked. Miss LePage is about thirty-one and has a record
as a heart-breaker, a young physician of Byesville having suicided about three months ago, it is alleged, on her account.

Etta Fraser, a young girl, was found dead
in her room here Wednesday evening, under circumstances that indicate suicide. Her mother went away in the afternoon, leaving her alone. About 5 o'clock, the neighbors heard a noise, and, going to her room, found the door locked. The door was forced open an hour later, and she was lying dead on the floor.

CHASKA AND HIS BRIDE

Indignantly Refuse an Offer From a Dime
Museum Proprietor.

PIERRE, Dak., April 6.—Chaska, the Indian who recently wedded Miss Fellows, the school teacher, at Swift Bird's camp, has received a telegram by special messenger offering him and his bride $5,000 for a ten weeks' engagement at a dime museum.

Chaska was found at St. Stephen's mission and being unable to read the telegram it was handed to his wife. Mrs. Chaska was very indignant and fairly shook with excitement
after she had read the telegram. She said:
"I think this is an insult, and I have the greatest notion to ignore the telegram. I will never allow my husband to accept the offer as long as I can earn a living. While I am not ashamed of Chaska and love him dearly, I think too much of my friends and parents to make a dime museum exhibition
of myself."

She then filled out a telegraphic blank as follows: "Cannot entertain your proposition. I speak for Chaska, my husband."

A House Fell on Him.

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 6.—Charles Bassett,
a wealthy stockman, was fatally injured
last night by the collapse of an old adobe house on his ranch. Bassett was a prominent member of the Wyoming legislature a few years ago, and his wealth is estimated at $750,000. He has no known relatives living.

Two Boys Murdered.

ABERDEEN, Miss., April 6.—A negro named George Washington, Wednesday shot and killed two white boys named Edmunds, in a quarrel over a trivial matter. A posse has gone in pursuit, and a lynching is likely to occur.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Indications—
Rain, followed by colder, fair weather;
brisk to high winds, becoming westerly.

and on some pressure to sell directed against a few of the leading speculative prices declined 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. during the opening hour. In the hour to noon there was a steady falling and a slight recovery, but after midday the selling was renewed, and under the lead of Delaware, Lackawanna & Western prices fell off to the lowest figures. The market at the present writing is weak.
